FLY

THE NEXT GENERATION

The top helm station has all the controls handy

Sliding glass doors protect the saloon

The Galeon 420 FLY offers one of the most spacious and well-designed interiors in its class.

The stunning exterior follows the latest design trends and will suit the tastes of both sport enthusiasts and more conservative clients. The exceptional flybridge can be fit-out with a fully functional galley, complete with a fridge, grill and cooker, as well as a dining table seating eight people – perfect for late, summer dinners. Outside, the optional extended stern platform will handle most personal watercraft, like Jet Skis, rafts or dinghies. The spacious cockpit is connected to the saloon by neatly folding doors, creating a vast open area. The main deck features plenty of space and contains a dining table, sitting areas, a well-equipped helmsman's station and a galley (which can be installed down below). The sliding bed raises the number of berths to a class-leading eight, while the endless interior design options allow for full customization.

Down below, clients can choose from two or three bedrooms - all with ample head room. Two separate bathrooms, complete with showers, offer privacy and comfort for all passengers on board. High-quality fabrics, luxury fittings and top-of-the-line electronic equipment create a sophisticated and relaxing interior. The wide variety of propulsion options include the IPS, shaft, sterndrive, Aquadrive and Axis systems to suit even the most demanding requirements. An array of engines will allow the yacht to realize its full potential and help take advantage of its precise handling and achieve goals such as comfort and fuel efficiency. With the 420 FLY, find the space, style and sophistication you expect from your next yacht.
